QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q: I am the principal of a school in Ward A. The alderman of Ward A is running for reelection and would like me to endorse him in his campaign literature. May I do this?

A: You are free to support the candidate and assist the campaign on your own time, but you may not endorse the candidate in your official capacity as a CPS principal.

Q: I am a principal. A state Senate candidate, with whom I disagree on many issues, wants to hold a rally at our school. May I deny this request?

A: Yes, you may deny this request. However, if you deny this candidate's request you cannot allow another candidate to use your school for a rally.

Q: I have been receiving e-mail at work from a political campaign seeking volunteers and donations. What should I do about this?

A: A political campaign should not be using the CPS e-mail system to solicit volunteers and donations. Please report the behavior and forward the e-mails to the Ethics Advisor.
