Brief Meet & Greet with the Principal

Megan Byrnes

As we begin this transition together, my priorities will be:

- Creating a strong school identity rooted in equity and joy.
- Maintaining the positive climate and culture of Cisneros while making way for our new CPS era.
- Hiring a talented, student-centered staff who are committed to our mission and vision.
- Building positive partnerships with educators and families through communication, feedback, and shared decision-making.
- Designing programs and supports that meet the needs of all students—including beyond the school day.

Cisneros: A place where every student belongs and every story matters.

Principal Remarks & Vision Casting

Vision Casting

Throughout this process, we are rooted in the belief that we are collaborating to bring our combined vision of Cisneros to life.

What do you want your student to experience at Cisneros? What programs do you want to see at Cisneros?

Please complete the following survey to help shape the future of CPS Cisneros by Sunday, February 1st, 2026.

All results will be shared with the Advisory & Design Leadership Council during the February meeting.

Overview | Advisory & Design Leadership Council

Acero School Transitions

- Once Design Committee Membership Selection Process has concluded, then the Advisory Council and the Design Committee will form a joint transition committee - Advisory & Design Leadership Council
- Composed of parents, staff, students, and community representatives, this group supports the successful transition and incubation process of all 5 Acero Schools to district-managed schools by summer 2026

Potential Workstreams
Advising and supporting the facilitation of the principal selection process	Identifying needs and concerns during the CPS transition
Advising on school culture and climate priorities	Reviewing and responding to key district proposals or changes
Recommending course offerings, electives, enrichment, and other specialized programs and supports for students and families	Helping CPS Network Chief + Principal make final decisions, key to school readiness for SY2026-27
Helping define the student and family learning experiences\Developing and executing effective family and community engagement plans	Meeting with CPS academic departments to understand program implementation, timeline, and limitation

Incubation Updates | Interview Priority

Acero School Transitions

- Our top priority is to make sure that current teachers and staff affected by this transition are given the first opportunity to interview for available CPS positions at the school.
- Final staffing decisions are made once CPS employment eligibility is confirmed and all required onboarding steps are completed, including a licensure review, criminal background check, and CPS policy acknowledgements.

Incubation Updates | Anticipated Interview Time for Current Acero Teachers

Acero School Transitions

Incubation Updates | Interview Timeline for Foundational Positions

Acero School Transitions

Foundational Positions are the following roles:

- Principal (selected)
- Assistant Principal
- School Clerk
- School Counselor

Facility Plan for SY26-27

Acero School Transitions

As shared, the co-location proposal for Cisneros to co-locate with another school is off the table for the 2026-2027 school year.

- CPS will continue to work with the Cisneros community, CPS Leaders, and the Chicago Board of Education to determine next steps for the facility.
- CPS is committed and will transition Cisneros to become a CPS school which will open in the 26-27 school year.
- New CPS Real Estate Team is pursuing lease agreement with the Archdiocese of Chicago for all 5 school sites
